"DOINGS BEFORE THE GRAND JURY."

The above is the imposing head of an article in last week's Rep and Rip-"by the special reporter" of that sheet -The only "special Reporter" that paper could have must have been one of the Grand Jurors. Now when it is, known that he, as well as his fellow jurors took a solemn oath of secrecy ed before that body, we may judge of the little estimation such a perjurer has of a solemn oath taken before high heaven.

The man thus guilty of breaking Miss Mary Whitmire, both of Stark Co. his oath perhaps is not aware of the Mr. Jacob Stoner and Miss Lydia A Smith penalty attached thereto. We do not believe that politics had anything to do with the action of the Grand Jury, as it is chauged, though, we doubt not the scoundrel who represented the Rep and Rip was so gov erned in his actions.

They complain that but one bill was ound for selling liquor, out of the many cases presented. Now let us look back a few years. During the prosecutorship of a not very learned limb of the law from Portage Keounty, and, by the way a great tempermee fugler, some fifty bills were reglarly found at each term of court by the Grand Jury against liquor sellers.

GREAT DIFCOVERY—It has long been claimed that if we knew it, there would be an herb, or a combination or herbs, roots and harks that would cure all the ills human fiesh is heir to. Dr. Mishler, with a few of his professionel frends, have cept this idea constantly in view, and ist ored earnessity and perseveringly for years to floot this most desirable treasure. Though they have not found an instant cure for all complaints, they have nevertheless discobered a remedy, which, as yet, has sever failed in caring Chills and Fov. T. Dyspepsia, and all discoses are log from any impurity of the blood or disarrangement of the digestive organs including Liver Complaint, Coagns, Colds. Eich Headache, Neuralgia.
